CODE OF ETHICS TO CHECK MALPRACTICE AND PLAGIARISM IN RESEARCH

Government College Batouli Dist-Surguja strictly follows the code of conduct prescribed by the University for Examinations. Malpractices such as copying from various sources or using cell phones are completely banned. Any kind of malpractice in the slip tests/internal assessment tests is reported to the Examination committee which in turn directs to the Principal. The academic council takes action on the defaulters.

The malpractices include:

- Copying from books, electronic devices or any other means during the examination.
- Copying the answers from other students.
- Communicating with others during the examination.
- Disobedience/misbehaviour in the examination hall.

Malpractice during the University Examinations is reported to the External Examiner and the University takes action on the defaulters.

Preamble

The academic activities such as teaching and research are closely associated with ethics, which are the most significant elements-of the academic. Teaching and research forms a novel combination of knowledge transfer which needs freedom to express the knowledge in the ethical way. It includes the freedom to inquire for innovation of new things in subject to encourage intellectual concern, to present findings, to publish data and conclusions without control or censorship and to teach in the manner they consider professionally appropriate. This requires integrity with the teaching and research.

Objectives

Our institution is committed to upholding the highest standard of ethics in research and takes all possible measures against any malpractices and plagiarism in research work. The ideals of originality, secrecy and morality are imbibed in students and they are made aware of wrong concepts of plagiarism .The main objective is to create academic awareness about the responsible conduct of research, study, project, work, assignments and dissertations, promotion of academic integrity and prevention of misconduct including plagiarism in academic writing among students, researchers and faculties of institution.

Our institution is keen to implant and endorse the culture of honesty and transparency in all its research activities while allowing academic freedom for innovative thinking.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is considered as an academic dishonest of using another person's ideas, information or expressions without acknowledging that person's work constitutes intellectual theft. Plagiarism is sometimes a moral and ethical offense rather than a legal one since some instances of plagiarism fall outside the scope of copyright infringement, a legal offense.
